New Members Appointed to Boards and Commissions

MOUNTLAKE TERRACE—At their June 15 meeting, the City Council made their annual appointments for city boards and commissions. Volunteers who serve on boards/commissions inform and advise the Council and get involved in the community to help organize events like National Night Out, Tour de Terrace, and Arts of the Terrace.

The city has five Boards and Commissions including the Arts Commission, Community Policing Advisory Board, Library Board, Planning Commission, and Recreation and Parks Commission. A Council Subcommittee conducted interviews on June 9 and recommendations were reviewed at Council's June 11 work session.

New appointees include Kris Sanderson and Christine O'Brien on the Community Policing Advisory Board. Council reappointed Carol McMahan and Chris Yates to the Arts Advisory Commission and Jeanne Krahn to the Library Board for three-year terms. New terms begin on July 1.

Members find the experience fun and rewarding by meeting other residents with similar interests, learning about the city, and helping shape the future of Mountlake Terrace.
