none

70 OTHER BUSINESS:

70.1 Interviews of students who were the final candidates for the Manu Sood Art Scholarship Fund.

Two interviews were conducted; the first candidate was Cassandra Soriano, who plans to attend the Art Institute of Seattle, she is interested in fashion design. The second candidate was Alexander Herbig, who plans to attend Seattle Pacific University, and brought several photos he had taken in Haiti three weeks after the earthquake.

The interviews were completed, and the commission had a discussion about the two candidates. The commission had a few questions about the requirements of the applicants. Chair Ryan will discuss these questions and requirements with Nalin Sood before making the decision on which student is the successful candidate.
