CITY COUNCIL LIAISON REPORT

Councilmember Murray introduced herself and shared her interest in working with the DEIC commission.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

- Proclamations for 2023 – Suggestions for proclamations, an explanation of what proclamations are, and what actions go with them. Upcoming events for the commission to participate in.
- Trespass Ordinance – Subcommittee Commissioners Deen, Richards, and Chair Paige worked on reviewing and providing suggestions for this document from a DEIC point of view. Plan to move forward by bringing up the recommendations when meeting with the Interim City Manager tomorrow.

PROJECT STATUS UPDATE

- Logo – This was approved at the last meeting. Ideas were discussed on how to use the logo.
- Safe Space Letter – The letter will be sent out to the Commissioners to review, edit, finalize it, and the commission will be prepared to vote on it at the next meeting.
- Welcome Signage – Commissioner Francisco met with the Arts Commission regarding incorporating different languages on a welcome signage at three city buildings. The commission discussed working with the city, other city commissions, facilities, and Park/Recreation Departments on this project. The commission's next step would be continuing to reach out to and work with other commissions.
- Land Acknowledgement – The Commission and Councilmember Murray discussed requesting the City Council to read the Land Acknowledgement before each meeting.

NEW BUSINESS

- Stipend Reimbursement – The Commission discussed the idea of some receiving a stipend for participating on this commission.
- DEI Suggestions – Step Up Conference (on 4/28/2023) virtual event, email with information to be distributed.

- Mountlake Terrace Police Department Sgt. Matt Porter and Commissioner Rohit worked together on multi-language 911 leaflets for the city.
- Lunar New Year is this weekend.

DEI WIN

Chair Paige announced - Governor Inslee signed a proclamation last week on January 13th as Korean American Day.

COMMISSIONERS CORNER

Doyle – Co-hosted MLK Day event at the Edmonds waterfront.

Francisco – Her daughter’s Girl Scout troop spoke at the Edmonds School District meeting in support of their peers, offering ideas for the Districts focus.

Deen – Involved in an emergency situation at MLT High School which turned into an opportunity for others to learn CPR.

Chair Paige – Attended ACCESS Think Tank Group, Alternative to Violence - Workshop
